NATIONAL ACADEMY OF HUMAN RESOURCES ANNOUNCES THE CLASS OF 2022

THREE NEW FELLOWS ARE INSTALLED

November 10, 2022 – The National Academy of Human Resources (NAHR) installed its thirty-first class of Fellows, an honor considered the most prestigious in the field of human resources, on November 10, 2022.

Since its founding in 1992, only 192 individuals have been elected Fellows of the National Academy of Human Resources, and sixteen individuals have been further honored as Distinguished Fellows. Additionally, thirteen organizations have been inducted as Honored Organizations for their contributions to the HR profession.

“By election to the Academy, the members of the 2022 Class of Fellows have been acknowledged by their peers as reaching the very highest level of achievement and contribution in the Human Resources profession,” said John Murabito, Chair of the NAHR and former Executive Vice President, Human Resources and Services, CIGNA Corporation. Jill Smart, President of NAHR and former Chief Human Resources Officer at Accenture, said “Each of these human resources professionals has made sustained and exemplary contributions to their organizations and communities, and the human resources profession. These new Academy Fellows have played a sustained role in shaping human resource management thinking and policy.” President Smart went on to say, “Additionally, these leaders have each played a major role in leading their respective organizations in the past few years, navigating a path to protect their employees’ physical and mental wellness, and enabling the businesses to operate as productively as possible.”
